

Dan Abrahams

Vice-President, Policy and Governance and Chief Legal Officer Professional Engineers Ontario (PEO)

Daniel J. (Dan) Abrahams is Vice-President, Policy and Governance and Chief Legal Officer at Professional Engineers Ontario (PEO). He joined PEO, initially as General Counsel, in 2019. His current role encompasses executive leadership in policy development, governance support, external relations, strategic communications, regulatory tribunals, and legal affairs. Previously, Dan spent 16 years in a variety of senior counsel and managerial roles at the Law Society of Ontario. He also worked for eight years as a senior counsel and lead of the mediation team at the Workplace Safety and Insurance Appeals Tribunal. Dan is a former law clerk to the Ontario Court of Appeal and a graduate of the University of Toronto's Trinity College and the University of Windsor Faculty of Law. His volunteer experience includes a number of years on the executive of the Public Sector Lawyers section of the Ontario Bar Association, where he served for three years as Chair. He has also served as a Vice-President of the Society of Ontario Adjudicators and Regulators, and on the boards of numerous non-profit organizations and charities. Dan was the 2024-25 recipient of the Ontario Bar Association's Thomas Marshall Award for Excellence in Public Sector Law.
